PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The Oversight Board's responses and objections to the Deposition Notice (the "Responses") are made without prejudice to the Oversight Board's right to amend or supplement the Responses herein if necessary at a later date. The Oversight Board has made reasonable efforts to respond to the Deposition Notice as the Oversight Board understands and interprets the Deposition Notice. If the Committee subsequently asserts an interpretation of the Deposition Notice that differs from that of the Oversight Board, the Oversight Board reserves the right to supplement its Responses. By making the objections below, the Oversight Board does not waive and expressly reserves its right to make additional objections.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, as unduly burdensome to the extent it does not seek information that is relevant and proportional to the narrow question of whether the Third Amended Disclosure Statement<sup>2</sup> contains adequate information, which is the only issue before the Court in connection with the upcoming Disclosure Statement Hearing.<sup>3</sup> The Committee has not articulated any basis on which to seek deposition testimony of the Oversight Board regarding the adequacy of the Third Amended Disclosure Statement.

2. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, because (i) they exceed the legitimate scope of discovery in connection with the Committee's evaluation of the adequacy of the Third Amended Disclosure Statement; or (ii) the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs the likely benefit, considering the needs of the case.

3. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notices, and to each and every Topic, to the extent they seek information without restrictions as to date.

4. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, because it purports to impose burdens on the Oversight Board that are inconsistent with, or not otherwise authorized by, or seeks to impose obligations that exceed those imposed by the Governing Rules. In responding to this Deposition Notice, and unless otherwise noted, the Oversight Board will construe all words in accordance with their ordinary English meaning, as

<sup>2</sup> "Third Amended Disclosure Statement" refers to the Disclosure Statement for the Third Amended Title III Joint Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al. [ECF No. 16741], dated May 11, 2021. Although the Requests are dated April 23, 2021, per Nicholas Bassett's May 14, 2021 letter to Brian Rosen, all references to the "Second Amended Disclosure Statement" in the Requests shall be construed as references to the Third Amended Disclosure Statement.

<sup>3</sup> "Disclosure Statement Hearing" refers to the hearing to consider the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement, currently set for July 13, 2021 pursuant to the Court's Order (I) Scheduling a Hearing to Consider the Adequacy of Information Contained in the Disclosure Statement, (II) Establishing the Deadline for Filing Objections to the Disclosure Statement and Replies Thereto, (III) Approving Form of Notice Thereof, (IV) Establishing Document Depository Procedures in Connection Therewith, and (V) Granting Related Relief, dated May 4, 2021 [ECF No. 16681] (the "Disclosure Statement Hearing Order").

informed by the Governing Rules. The Oversight Board will construe and respond to the Deposition Notice and Topics in a manner consistent with its obligations under the Governing Rules, and not otherwise.

5. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, to the extent that the information sought is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product doctrine, the executive and deliberative process privileges, the common interest privilege, the mediation privilege, or any other applicable privileges, doctrines, or immunities protecting information from disclosure. The Oversight Board intends to and does assert any and all such privileges with respect to all such information.

6. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, to the extent that it lacks the “reasonable particularity” required by Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, so as to make it impossible to identify the limits of the inquiry, and to make the topics so overbroad as to be impossible to address by deposition testimony.

7. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, as unduly burdensome to the extent that it requests the Oversight Board give testimony on topics that are beyond its knowledge.

8. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, to the extent that it seeks testimony about information that is confidential or proprietary in nature.

9. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, to the extent that it (i) implies the existence of facts or circumstances that do not or did not exist, or (ii) states or assumes legal or factual conclusions. By providing these Responses, the Oversight Board does not admit any factual or legal premise in the Deposition Notice.

10. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, as overbroad and unduly burdensome to the extent that it purports to require the Oversight Board to provide testimony concerning “any” information concerning a topic, so as to make it impossible to identify the limits of the inquiry, and to make the topics so overbroad as to be impossible to address by deposition testimony.

11. The Oversight Board objects to the Deposition Notice, and to each and every Topic, as unduly burdensome to the extent that it is cumulative or duplicative of other discovery requests. The Oversight Board further objects to the Deposition Notice in its entirety, and to each and every Topic, to the extent that the Committee may obtain the information sought through less burdensome means.

12. The Oversight Board objects to the definition of the term “AFT” as overbroad because it includes individuals and entities without regard to their connection or relevance to the approval of the Third Amended Disclosure Statement or to confirmation of the Third Amended Plan. In responding to this Deposition Notice, the Oversight Board will construe “EY” to mean Ernst & Young LLP and its employees, officers, directors, and known agents reasonably likely to possess information relevant to said subjects.

16. The Oversight Board objects to the definition of the terms “FOMB,” “You,” and “Your” as overbroad because they include individuals and entities not components of the Oversight Board, and without regard to their connection or relevance to the approval of the Third Amended Disclosure Statement or to confirmation of the Third Amended Plan. In responding to this Deposition Notice, the Oversight Board will construe “FOMB” to mean the Oversight Board and its employees, members, and known agents reasonably likely to possess information relevant to said subjects.

21. The Oversight Board objects to the definition of the terms “Communication” and “Communications” to the extent it imposes duties on the Oversight Board that differ from or exceed those imposed by the Governing Rules. The Oversight Board further objects to searching and preparing its designated witnesses to testify with respect to any text messages, web messages, or other forms of instant messaging, or to “words transmitted by telephone, radio, or any method of voice recording,” which would be unduly burdensome and not proportionate to the needs of the case.

22. The Oversight Board objects to the definitions of “Concerning” and/or “relating to” to the extent they are overly broad, vague, and ambiguous.

23. 24. The Oversight Board objects to the definition of the terms “You” and “Your” as overbroad because it incorporates the objectionable definition of the term FOMB. In responding to this Deposition Notice, the Oversight Board will construe “You” and “Your” to mean the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico and its employees, members, and known agents reasonably likely to possess information relevant to the approval of the Third Amended Disclosure Statement or to confirmation of the Third Amended Plan.
